Dear Ball-a-holics and friends:

On January 1, 2012, we began our 40th year in business with a bang. Just like the New Year's Eve ball finally hitting the bottom, the anticipation of our 40th anniversary ball went crazy. This ornament "40 years of Luv" has already become one of the favorites for many of our customers. We know it is a little pricey, but consider that 95% of the components of the kit are Swarovski jewels. We know you will not be disappointed in having this one added to your collection. Remember, this one is only available until December 31st, will not be added to the "Golden Oldie" list and this retirement will not be extended.

ALSO, each one comes with a numbered certificate of authenticity and is limited to one per household.

One of our new designs is called "The Empress" and is a Cracker Box rendition of a design created by our dear friend Donna in upstate New York. Donna, we thank you!

As you will see, we again went a bit crazy giving you many options to choose from. Sorry about that. Not really!!!!

You may be surprised to see we have added a few additional items to the supply sheet, including two display options. The same rules apply--- no kit, no supplies. Simple.

To help us get our emailing list in order, please again send a short note through email and please include your name and state. You do not want to miss out on anything we are doing for the anniversary year. If you do not have email... maybe a friend or relative has an email address you can use.

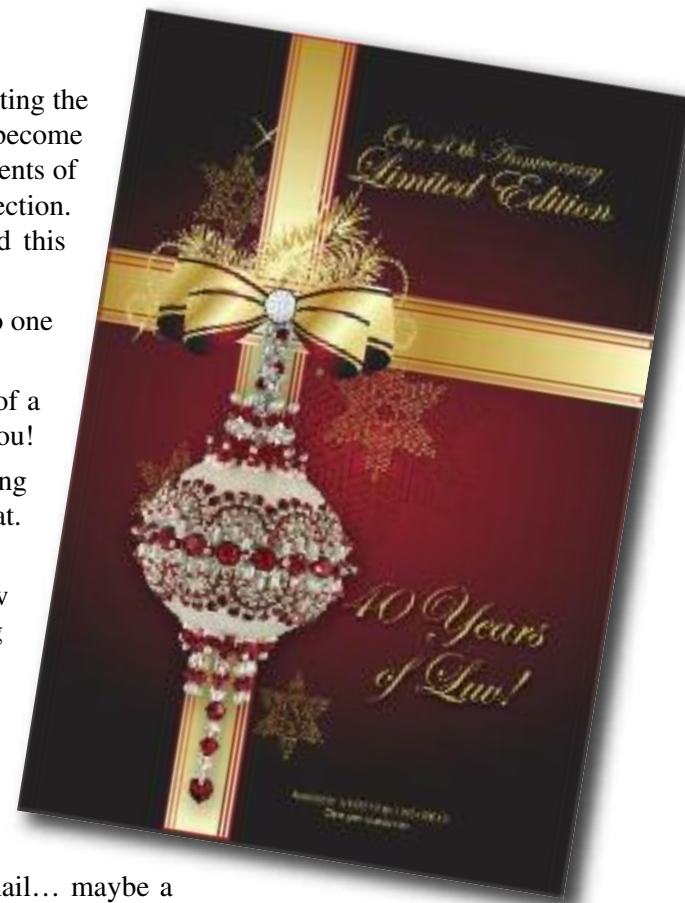

We hope you are enjoying the 40th anniversary as much as we are.
